

|                                 |                                 |                        |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------------|------------------------|
| MINFILE Number: 092F 142 | Name: OCEAN WAVE (L.303) | Status: Showing |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------------|------------------------|

| Ore Zone/Year/Report On  | Tonnage/Category         | Commodity        | Grade                   | Reference/Comments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|------------------------------|------------------------------|------------------|-------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| SKARN2008      N     | Assay/analysisGrab       | CopperSilver | 2.8 %10.2 g/t       | A select outcrop grab sample (813555) taken from a 0.5 metre thick skarn, located east of the Ocean Wave occurrence, containing actinolite-chlorite-garnet with magnetite and chalcopyrite mineralization yielded 2.8 per cent copper and 10.2 grams per tonne silver. Assessment Report 30799 |
| DRILLHOLE1970      N | Assay/analysisDrill Core | SilverCopper | 13.3700 g/t1.2000 % | From a 5 metre section. Assessment Report 2856.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| ADIT1965      N      | Assay/analysisRock       | Copper           | 0.73 %                  | A sample taken from a quartz vein in the upper adit of the Big Bear claim assayed 0.73 per cent copper. Prospectus: Alberni Mines Ltd., 1965                                                                                                                                                   |